Rev. Luis Lopez is originally from El Salvador. He is the oldest of four siblings. He grew up in a Catholic environment attending Sunday Masses, serving as an altar boy and teaching catechesis in his home parish.

His vocation story was impacted by the example of Saint Oscar Romero, who was Archbishop of San Salvador and martyred in 1980. One of the St. Oscar Romero's sayings became his inspiration: "A good shepherd must be where the suffering is, and the only true leader and fountain of hope is Jesus Christ." Rev. Lopez graduated from the University as a teacher and he taught for almost ten years before he entered into the Seminary.

Rev. Lopez began his priestly formation in January 2005. He moved to Costa Rica where he studied Philosophy. Then in 2007, he went to México to begin his Theology studies. In December 2008, Rev. Lopez came to the U.S to visit his family. During that visit, he saw the necessity for Priests to serve in this Country. After much prayer he made the decision to apply to the Diocese of Oakland as a seminarian.

Rev. Lopez moved to the USA in 2009. He studied ESL for two years and then continued his Theology studies at St Patrick's Seminary and University in Menlo Park.

Rev. Luis Lopez was ordained as priest for the Diocese of Oakland on May 13th, 2016. He has served as Parochial Vicar at St. Anthony, Oakley and Divine Mercy Parish, Oakland. On May 17, 2019, Bishop Michael Barber appointed him as Parochial Administrator of Corpus Christi Parish, Fremont, effective July 1st.

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man's radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God's love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

TRANSFORMACI3N RADICAL

En este Trig3simo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas describen todo menos un tiempo ordinario. Son inquietantes y nos dejan preocupados. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento cuenta acerca de un joven que rompi3 radicalmente con el pasado para seguir un nuevo camino. El Evangelio describe c3mo repentinamente cambia la vida que conocemos si seguimos la llamada de Cristo. El Salmo y Pablo nos aseguran que ese cambio de vida es posible solo a causa del poder del amor de Dios. Se nos presenta una dura elecci3n. Para amar como Dios ama, debemos dejar atr3s a nuestras vidas antiguas. Debemos dejar atr3s no solo lo malo, el egoismo y el mal sino lo ordinario, nuestro trabajo diario y lo importante, nuestras familias, nuestras vidas. Amar con Dios ama requiere una transformaci3n radical, no una transici3n tranquila.
