ORDINARY TIME IN OUR LITURGY

Last Tuesday, after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we began the Ordinary time. Ordinary time is the longest liturgical season in the Catholic Church, encompassing either 33 or 34 weeks each year. Because other liturgical seasons begin or end with movable feasts, the length of Ordinary time can vary slightly; however, 33 weeks is the more common length. The weeks are numbered, e.g., the first Sunday of Ordinary Time, the second Sunday of Ordinary Time, and so forth. Ordinary time is technically one liturgical season, though it is divided into two periods as “the Season after Epiphany” and “the Season after Pentecost.” The liturgical color of Ordinary Time is green; however, other appropriate colors are worn on particular feast days.

Let us live this time in union and communion with Jesus Christ in order to know him better and make him known through our words and our deeds.

I share with you some snapshot of our December's celebrations.

The Liturgical Year

EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO EN LA LITURGIA

El pasado martes, después de la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor, inició Tiempo Ordinario en el calendario litúrgico que ocupa la mayor parte del año: 33 ó 34 semanas, de las 52 que hay y el color verde es el distintivo para este tiempo. Con este nombre se indica que es un tiempo diferente a los “tiempos fuertes” como el Adviento, la Navidad, la Cuaresma y la Pascua. En el Tiempo Ordinario tenemos la oportunidad de encontrarnos con Cristo y hacer la experiencia de los discípulos que escucharon la llamada y le siguieron. Este tiempo nos ayudara a conocer a Cristo, a marlo y a seguirlo.

Les invito a aprovechar este Tiempo Ordinario. Dios va a pasar por nuestro camino. Y durante este tiempo miremos a ese Cristo, que desde temprano ora a su Padre, y después durante el día se desvive llevando la salvación a todos, terminando el día rendido a los pies de su Padre, que le consuela y le llena de su infinito amor, de ese amor que al día siguiente nos comunicará en abundancias. Si no nos entusiasmos con Cristo, no podremos entusiasmar a otros.

Les comparto unas fotos de nuestras celebraciones del mes de diciembre.
