WHY DO WE CELEBRATE THE HOLY TRINITY
 AFTER PENTECOST?

After Pentecost, the Church places three important solemnities the first one is Holy Trinity, the second is Corpus Christi, and the last one Sacred Heart of Jesus.

In fact, the centrality of the Trinity in Catholic theology and spirituality is evident from its importance in the most recognizable of all Catholic prayers: the Sign of the Cross. While signing themselves with the cross, Catholics pray: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." In particular, God is understood to reveal who he is in his deepest mystery in fullness in the sending of Christ and the Spirit. First, God the Father sends the Son in the Incarnation. Next, the Son returns to the Father through the Ascension. Finally, the Father and the Son send the Spirit, as we celebrated last weekend in Pentecost. Thus, the sending of the Son and His return to the Father reflects the Triune life of God: the Son proceeds from the Father and the Spirit proceeds from the Father and (through) the Son. Hence, after celebrating Pentecost we focus on the Trinity.

Next weekend is our celebration of Corpus Christi. Bishop Barber will celebrate a solemn Bilingual Mass on June First at 7:00 pm. I await everyone next weekend for all masses and procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ.

¿POR QUÉ CELEBRAMOS LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD DESPUÉS DE PENTECOSTÉS?

Después de Pentecostés, la Iglesia coloca tres solemnidades importantes: la primera es la Santísima Trinidad, la segunda es el Corpus Christi y la última, el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús.

De hecho, la centralidad de la Trinidad en la teología y espiritualidad católica es evidente por su importancia en la más reconocible de todas las oraciones católicas: la Señal de la Cruz. Al firmar con la cruz, los católicos rezan: "En el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". En particular, se entiende que Dios revela quién es en su misterio más profundo en plenitud en el envío de Cristo y el Espíritu. Primero, Dios el Padre envía al Hijo en la Encarnación. Luego, el Hijo regresa al Padre a través de la Ascensión. Finalmente, el Padre y el Hijo envían el Espíritu, como lo celebramos el último fin de semana en Pentecostés. Así, el envío del Hijo y Su retorno al Padre refleja la vida Trinitaria de Dios: el Hijo procede del Padre y el Espíritu procede del Padre y (a través) del Hijo. Por lo tanto, después de celebrar Pentecostés nos enfocamos en la Trinidad.

El próximo fin de semana es nuestra celebración de Corpus Christi. El Obispo Barber celebrará una Misa Solemne Bilingüe el viernes primero de junio a las 7:00 p.m. Los espero a todos el próximo fin de semana para diversas misas y la procesión en honor del Santísimo Sacramento mientras celebramos la solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo.
